FORBES BOOKS BOUTS
FOR AURORA SHOW

Harry Forbes, former bantam-weight champion of the world, has been engaged by Jack Sagers, Aurora boxing promoter, as matchmaker for his club. Forbes will be in charge of the next Aurora show, which will be staged Monday, Sept. 17.

Forbes has had wide experience in booking boxing bouts and is negotiating with Clint Flynn and Sailor Freeman for the feature bout of the Aurora show. Mike Eulo will probably meet Frankie Izzo in the semi-windup. The two windup bouts will be over the eight-round route, and two prelings will also be staged.

Marty Henderson, who boxes "Peacocks" Dundee at La Salle Sept. 1, is training faithfully for the battle with the Rock Island speedster. More than 200 Joliet fans are expected to journey to La Salle to watch the bouts. A special car over the C. O. & P. railway will leave Ottawa on the night of the fight. It will return after the bouts are completed.

"Spike" Kelly, the welterweight star of Los Krone's stable, has been offered a match over the ten-round route with Tommy Stevenson, La Salle boxer. Two downstate clubs are anxious to stage the match and Kelly may accept the offer Stevenson would draw with Spider Wolf at Aurora Monday.

TENNIS STARS UNDER ARMS.

Every One Among the First Ten Is In One Branch or Another.

William M. Johnston, of San Francisco, national doubles tennis champion, has received a commission as ensign in the naval militia of California.

He left for the Pacific coast after withdrawing from several tournaments to be played in the east.

With Johnston in the navy, the United States National Lawn Tennis association announced that every American of the first ten ranking players of the country now is in some branch of the government service except R. Lindley Murray, who is "doing his bit" as manager of a chemical plant whose product is important for war purposes.

A man robs himself if he does not make the best of his time.

THINGS THAT NEVER HAPPEN

Easy Answer.

"His wife makes him go to church every Sunday."

"How do you know she makes him go?"

"Because he goes."—Detroit Saturday Night.

Moderation.

To the man that is forty, who has made moderation in all things his rule life has only well begun and fame is still possible. The best things in a man's life usually come to him after the age of forty.
